

Ushakov Arseny Pavlovich

My great-grandfather Ushakov Arseny Pavlovich and great-grandmother Ushakova Louise Ivanovna lived in Nyurba. They are WWII home front veterans. He is Circassian and she is Russian. Their parents were exiles from southern Russia by Nicholas II.

Ushakov Arseny was not called to defend the native land, because he was too young for war. During the war he worked at the airport. When the war ended he brought Loise from Altai. Arseny was a teacher and founded the Antonov school. Louise was an agronomist. She had fiery red hair. They adopted one girl.
