

My grandparents are home front veterans

My grandfather, Gavril Gavrilovich, and my grandmother, Irina Afanasyevna, are children of war and veterans of the home front and labour. Relatives of my grandmother, who lived in Churapcha, were forcibly resettled in Kobayaskiy district during the Second World War. Hard work and starvation led to the death of many of them. As a child my grandfather worked for a collective farm with adults.