

GOLDEROV FEDOR DAVYDOVICH

My great-great-grandfather Golderov Fedor Davydovich was born in 1913, in the village of Orosu, V-Vilyui Uls. In June, 1943 he was drafted into the ranks of the Red Army. He fought against the Japanese imperialists until complete surrender in the military unit 34661. Then he took part in cleaning up settlements from the consequences of the war. He was demobilized in 1945, by decree of the Supreme Soviet of the SSR, c #23.

During the war he was not injured. For participation in the war he has eleven medals and one order. After the war, he worked on his collective farm. Before and after the war he and my great-great-grandmother Evdokia Ksenofontovna gave birth to 12 children. My great-grandfather, Golderov Savva Fedorovich, was born in March 1941 as the fourth child. He is 75 years old.
