

Vasiliev Afanasy Romanovich and Vasiliev Vasily Ananevich

On the left side of the photo you can see my great-grandfather who worked during the war, his name is Vasiliev Afanasy Romanovich. He is 91 years old. He was awarded the Order of Labour Glory.

“It was hard. A lot of people starved to death. They gave us 300 gramm of flour per day” he told.

On the right side you can see his brother – Vasiliev Vasily Ananevich. He is 94 years old. In 1945 he participated in Japan War and was awarded the medals “For Victory over Japan” and “For Victory over Germany”

I am very proud of my grandparents!
