

Pavlov Mikhail Nikolaevich

My great-great-grandfather was born in village of Maya in 1909. He was a chairman of the first collective farm in the YASSR, awarded the "Badge of Honor" - "Red Tractor". He was twice awarded a trip to VDNH in Moscow. He was educated, business executive and a good organizer. My great-grandmother Maria Mikhailovna was his only child. Her mother died early. In 1942 he volunteered for the Great Patriotic War and did not return.
